<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Outcome</th>
<th>Assessment Method</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| SLO1: Graduating minors in European Studies demonstrate an understanding of Europe as a region of the world | Measure 1.1: Students complete a written assignment in the European Studies capstone course (EUST 400) that directly addresses the topic of Europe as a diverse region of the world.
Performance Target: Ninety per cent (90%) of minors achieve a rating of meets standard.
Measure 1.2: Students complete a written assignment in the European Studies capstone course (EUST 400) that answers the question of how Europe as a region of the world is different from other regions of the world. Performance Target: Ninety per cent (90%) of minors achieve a rating of meets standard. |
| SLO2: Graduating European Studies minors identify, describe, and analyze one European historical, political, cultural, economic, or contemporary issue they have learned in the courses in the European Studies minor. | Measure 2.1: Students complete a written assignment in the European Capstone course (EUST 400) in which they identify one historical political, economic or cultural issue that is characteristic of Europe.
Performance Target: Ninety per cent (90%) of minors achieve a rating of meets standard in the attached rubric.
Measure 2.2: Students complete a written assignment in the European Studies capstone course (EUST 400) in which they identify one contemporary issue that is characteristic of Europe. Performance Target: Ninety per cent (90%) of minors achieve a rating of meets standard in the attached rubric. |
| SLO3: Graduating European Studies minors identify and analyze one aspect of a contemporary issue in Europe that links together or separates the various countries and cultures of Europe. | Measure 3.1: In the European Studies Capstone course (EUST 400) students complete a written assignment in which they identify and analyze one development since 1945 that links together or separates the various countries or cultures of Europe.
Performance Target: Ninety per cent (90%) of students achieve a rating of meet standard on the attached rubric.
Measure 3.2: In the European Studies Capstone course students complete a written assignment in which they identify and analyze one event since 1945 that links together or separates the various countries or cultures of Europe. Performance Target: Ninety per cent (90%) of students achieve a rating of meets standard on the attached rubric. |