Teacher candidates will demonstrate their understanding of their literacy background and how that background influences their teaching.

Knowing Self

Teacher candidates will analyze how their philosophy of teaching correlates to their instructional methods.

Philosophy & Teaching

Teacher candidates will write and implement an effective unit of content for a high school classroom that include appropriate content, strategies, and resources.

Instructional Plans