Historic Preservation MS – Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

Independent Research
Students will demonstrate the ability to design and complete a program of independent research that poses an original question, develops a research design and method to gather, analyze and interpret data, and disseminates the results effectively through both written and oral presentations.

Documentation of Historic Resources
Students will have the ability to document historical resources in the built environment and demonstrate the ability to complete field work and analysis necessary to meet accepted state and national standards in architectural and cultural resources assessments.

Assessment of Historic Buildings
Students will have the ability to complete conditions assessments of historic buildings, structures, and objects.