Writing
Students demonstrate the ability to write clearly and expressively about complex subject matter.

Apply Skills to New Contexts Post-Graduation
Students demonstrate the ability to apply their skills in writing and interpreting to new contexts in which, after graduation, they can enhance their personal and professional lives.

Interpreting a Variety of Texts
Students demonstrate the ability to interpret a variety of texts using historical context, artistic conventions, and the ideas of others.