Critical Thinking
Students demonstrate critical thinking about gender in historical and contemporary cultures & societies.

Social Justice and Intersectionality
Students evaluate social justice issues with attention to differences across social categories.

Application of Concepts
Students apply cross-disciplinary concepts from WGS coursework to new situations and real-life experiences.