German Studies students will identify key themes and topics in a variety of media (such as German Literature or Film) and thereby demonstrate their understanding of aspects from German culture.

Identification of Themes

Graduating minors in German Studies identify links between multiple courses they have completed in the minor and demonstrate how their coursework was interconnected.

Linking Interdisciplinary Coursework

German Studies students interpret, situate and contextualize key themes and topics in a variety of media (such as German Literature or Film) and thereby demonstrate knowledge of the historical, intellectual, aesthetic or ethical dimensions present in German culture.

Analysis of Themes

German Studies Minor – Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)