SLO1. Students will identify key themes and topics in a variety of media (such as Russian Literature or Film) that Russian culture deems important in understanding the traditions of the culture.

SLO2. Students interpret, situate and contextualize key themes and topics in a variety of media (such as Russian Literature or Film) that Russian culture deems important in understanding the traditions of the culture in their historical, intellectual, aesthetic or ethical dimension.

SLO3. Students demonstrate research skills within the parameters of the discipline. They are able to identify, record and interpret key scholarly artifacts as they pertain to the key themes and topics in the field of Russian Studies.