Students who complete the academic program of Project Management

1. Project Structure
   › have the skills needed to establish the structure for a successful project.

2. Project Scope Delivery
   › demonstrate the ability to ensure the project scope delivers the expected business value and desired outcome.

3. Communication
   › are able to develop and use various mechanisms to communicate project information.