Supply Chain Management BS-Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs)

Quantitative Ability
Students use quantitative models in solving business-related problems in the field of supply chain management.

SCM Proficiency
Students demonstrate proficiency in the core areas of the supply chain management discipline within a global context.

Technical Aptitude
Students use current technology-based tools to acquire, store, retrieve, and analyze supply chain related information.

Communication Proficiency
Students demonstrate proficiency in both oral and written communication through the preparation and presentation of supply chain and related projects.